

Psalm 110: The Establishment of the King

Symmetry Perceived; V1-7

The Lord hath said: V1	Solemn Proclamation	The Lord hath sworn: V4
At my right hand: V1	Sovereign Position	At Thy right hand: V5
Shall send the rod: V2	Subduing Peoples	Shall strike through kings: V5
Rule Thou: V2	Supreme Presider	He shall judge: V6
Dew of thy youth: V3	Strengthened Perseverance	Drink of the brook: V7

Seated Patiently; V1

- Divine Communication: The Lord said
- Designated Position: My right hand
- Determined Duration: Until

Scepter of Power; V2-3

- Place of Sovereignty: Out of Zion
- Peoples Subdued: Thine enemies
- Prepared Soldiers: Thy people shall be willing in the day of Thy power
- Purity and Strength: Beauties of holiness; the dew of Thy youth

Special Priesthood; V4

- Melchizedek
  - Historically: Genesis 14
    - His Moniker: Significance
    - His Monarchy: Salem
    - His Ministry: Strengthening
  - Prophetically: Psalm 110
    - The Promise: Unalterable
    - The Period: Unending
  - Doctrinally: Hebrews 5-7
    - The Pattern: Sacred Operations
    - The Priesthood: Separate in Order; Superiority is Obvious
    - The Perpetuity: Succession is Over
  - Practically:
    - Building up for Trial: Bread
    - Bliss for the Trail: Wine
    - Blessing and Tithing: Blessed be Abram; Gave tithes of all

Surmounting Potentate; V5-7

- The Wrath: Conquering; V5
- The Wound: Corpses; V6
- The Way: Courage; V7

